

POLICY OF QUALITY AND ENVIROMENT

Tapla Industries is a company dedicated since its inception to the production of flocking articles for different uses.

Our policy of continuous improvement has let us polish the flock technology itself up to get excellent technical products with application in several areas that nowadays we regularly export to a growing number of customers around the world.

With a solid foundation in R + D + i in I Tapla Industries SL we design and manufacture global flocked solutions, all aimed to fulfill the needs of our customers by offering services and products with high quality standard, committing at all times to prevent and minimize the environmental impact of our activities.

Our policy is driven by the Managing Committee being followed with full responsibility and involvement by each team member, thus achieving the defined objectives.

We maintain an effective and efficient program of Quality Management, Environment and Safety, always seeking continuous improvement and higher competitiveness in the market, promoting motivation and ongoing training of our staff and our suppliers.

Under the philosophy of the economy of the common good and taking into account all the concerned parties. Industrias Tapla, constantly works to keep its objectives aligned with Corporate Social Responsibility.

As a part of the basic values of Tapla Industries S.L. there is a strong commitment to promote a management model based on integrity, clarity, equality and ethics in all aspects.

We are committed to accomplish to all current regulations and other requirements subscribed in our entire processes and products, as well as environmental protection.

STEERING COMMITTEE
TAPLA INDURTRIES S.L.
10/01/20